

Alexandria Gazette

THURSDAY EVENING, NOV. 2.

Honor.
I. "H. nor won't be a breaker!"
How do you find it, my boy?
Did you have an extra honor to spare?
That you offered to settle that way?
II. Honor will buy a breaker!
If you can't, it's only try!
If you're known as a man of honor,
You anything can buy.
III. But after you've bought and sold it,
Don't turn around and say:
I shall pay what I promised,
I shall settle that way!
IV. You must ask what I should give,
And not for full payment say,
For if you don't settle my way,
I will not settle that!
V. Will honor buy a breaker?
If it cannot, then what can?
For the man without the honor,
Is only a half a man.
If you want a Cheap or a Fine Overcoat, Underneath, or a Heavy Overcoat we have the best assortment and the lowest prices in the city.

Perry, Ga. April 14, 1870.
I have watched the use of the medicine now known as "S. S. S." over fifty years, and have never heard of a failure when properly taken. It cured the use of it on my slaves between 1850 and 1855, as also did a number of my neighbors, and in every case that came within my knowledge effected a cure. In 1855 Geo. Walker, bought at auction a slave and warranted him to be sound, but was discovered that he had Syphilis for twelve years. His head was without a hair on it. He treated him with this remedy, and in four weeks he was sound and well, and in a short time had as fine a head of hair as was ever owned by a negro. He owned this slave many years, and he never had any return of the disease, nor lost a day's work.
